24th October 2013

Dear Brothers and sisters,
Om Sri Sai Ram.

November 23rd is an auspicious and holy day for Sathya Sai devotees all over the world. We are truly blessed and fortunate. The supreme Lord, the one beyond name, form and attributes has incarnated for our redemption with a beautiful divine form and sweet name as Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. We have experienced His pristine and unconditional divine Love. He showed us that Love is the royal road to attain the goal of human life. He exhorted that the best way to love God is to love all and serve all.

The devotees and officers of the Sathya Sai International Organisation will meet in Prasanthi Nilayam to offer homage to Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba. On this sacred day Sathya Sai devotees all over the world adore and worship Him by remembering Him, singing His glories, doing selfless service and reaffirming to practice His teachings in their daily lives.

With this letter I am attaching the programme for the Bhagawan's Birthday celebrations in Sai Kulwant Hall.

On 21st November we will have a classical Carnatic music concert by Sri Chong Chiu Sen from Malaysia. Sri Chong Chiu Sen is a disciple of the legend (late) Padma Vibhushan Smt. D.K. Pattammal. He has performed in the prestigious Indian National festivals such as the Spirit of Unity Concerts for Universal Integration and in The Music Academy in Chennai, India.

On 24th November we will have a Sai Symphony Orchestra by the devotees of the Sathya Sai International Organisation. The Repertoire will include about 25 musicians on violins, trombones, violas, cymbals, cellos, timpani, bass, keyboard, clarinets, flutes, trumpets and saxophones. These accomplished musicians and artists from many different nations will offer their talent at the Divine lotus feet of Bhagawan Sri Sathya Sai Baba.

We hope this information will help the devotees in planning their visit to India for the Birthday celebrations. Let us rejoice in the Lord Sai, sing His glory and do His work.

Jai Sai Ram.
With loving regards,
Dr. Narendranath Reddy
