

Love All—Serve All

Release 524 GI

General Information

2018 Sai Medical Camp – Vanua Levu, Fiji

Our Sai Medical Unit will be conducting a four-day free Medical Camp in Vanua Levu, Fiji. Registration for the camp is now open and service dates are as follows:

- Saturday, August 11, 2018 : Team flies from Australia and New Zealand to Nadi, Fiji
- Sunday, August 12, 2018 : Arrive in Labasa followed by half a day medical conference at Sangam Nursing School, Labasa
- Monday, August 13, 2018 to Thursday, August 16, 2018 : Medical camps in regional/rural areas near Labasa township
- Friday, August 17, 2018 : Fly from Labasa to Nadi
- Saturday, August 18, 2018 : Relax/recreation day in Nadi
- Sunday, August 19, 2018 : Fly back to Australia / New Zealand

A separate small surgical team over the aforementioned period will be serving at Labasa General Hospital. Theatre nurse, post-operative care, intensive care and other specialities (skin, eye, gynaecology, and psychiatry) are invited to join. Interested volunteers are requested to register via e-form by February 26, 2018.

Total team members for 2018 medical camp will be around 40 – 45 comprising medical and dental professionals, clinicians, nurses and limited number of general volunteers. There may be a selection process if larger numbers register for this camp. Registration may close early if the required number of volunteers is reached.

Jai Sai Ram

Yours in Sai Service,

Krishnan Nair
Central Coordinator
SSIO Australia & PNG
SSIO New Zealand
14 December 2017