Dana Gillespie

Dana Gillespie is a singer, song writer and actress. She has been in the music business for over 48 years and has recorded over 65 albums. Her career has combined radio, theatre, film and music. Dana recorded her first album at the age of 15. Voted 'Top British Female Blues Vocalist' by the British Blues Connection and Blueprint Magazine between 1992 and 1996 she has now been elevated into their Hall Of Fame.

Dana first heard about Sri Sathya Sai Baba in the early 80's, and has since been visiting Sai Baba's Ashram yearly. She has made nine albums of Indian Bhajans, three under the name of Third Man, and has also produced albums of English devotional songs. She is an ardent devotee of Sri Sathya Sai Baba and has been travelling to many Sai Conferences, giving talks about her meetings with Him, as well as singing many spiritual songs.
